Dear Parents/Guardians:

Testing & Learning Systems, Ltd. announces a comprehensive SAT course that covers all of the content and strategies necessary for your child to meet with success on the SAT examination.

Juniors taking the SAT's on March 10, May 5, or June 2, 2012 would benefit from taking this course which includes SAT content, tests, and a mock SAT to simulate "test anxiety." Sophomores might consider this course as an excellent way to begin preparation for the content on the PSAT's and SAT's. Students registering for the course will be mailed a list of vocabulary words so that they can begin memorizing these for a quiz given at the initial meeting of the course. Students will also be required to turn in an essay on a specified topic which will be mailed to them prior to the first class session. The essay will be due at the initial class meeting. If interested in this course, please call Dr. Goldberg to discuss your child's individual needs.
